

PIM Membership Benefits

PIM BUYERS GUIDE/MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY

How can print buyers find me through PIM membership? PIM members are listed by company name, area of expertise, equipment and location. Printers, print buyers and suppliers refer to this directory when looking for print partners. PIM receives requests for names of printing companies, and only PIM members are recommended and referred. Let us know if you need a copy. Contact Reva Stephenson, rstephenson@pimn.org, 651-789-5500.

PRINT ACCESS www.printaccess.com

How can print buyers find me through Printing Industries of America (PIA) membership? PIM members can be located by print buyers online at www.printaccess.com. The database allows anyone to searching for specific products and services, and by location. Contact Pat Barnum, pbarnum@pimn.org, 651-789-5507.

Printing Industries of America (PIA) RESOURCES www.printing.org

How do I identify the appropriate resources at PIA? Member Central is described in a short video at: www.printing.org/page/5703. For personal assistance, membercentral@printing.org, 412-259-1770.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES www.pimn.org

How do I post a job or review resumes on PIM's website? Free for PIM members only! Contact Reva Stephenson, rstephenson@pimn.org, 651-789-5500.

STUDENT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

How can I receive funding through this PIM member program? The PIM Student Internship Program is funded by the Pohlad Foundation and administered by PIM staff. PIM members can receive up to $2200 in wage reimbursement for summer interns ages 16-21 during summer months. Contact Kris Davis, kristinp@pimn.org, 651-789-5508.

LEGISLATIVE LEADERSHIP

Where can I get updates on legislative information that affects my business? PIA and PIM have lobbyists to keep an eye out for the printing industry. PIM will provide legislative updates to members throughout the legislative session. Contact David Radziej, davidr@pimn.org, 651-789-5503.

INSURANCE SERVICES

Are my insurance rates the best available? Insurance Services program provides free consultations for all insurance needs. Contact John Olmanson, jolmanson@pimn.org, 651-789-5503.

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

Where can I go to get information to ensure that all safety and environmental requirements are in place at my company? The PIM Great Printer Environmental Initiative is a certification program offered only to PIM members. Print buyers request printers that are certified Great Printers, and OSHA recognizes the significance of the certification requirements. Environmental and safety training is also offered by PIM. Contact Paul Gutkowski, paulg@pimn.org, 651-789-5505.

NETWORKING AND EVENTS

Are there opportunities to meet others in the industry? Some of the PIM programs include: Women in Print, Print Mixers, Olive Club, Print Showcase, Star of Excellence Awards Banquet, Annual Conference, Annual Print Summit, SD Walleye Fishing Tournament, Young Professionals Group, IA, NE and MN golf outings, IA, NE and SD breakfast meetings, PIM training programs, Financial Executives Council, Human Resources Council, and many more are listed at www.pimn.org. Contact Lola Faufau, lfaufau@pimn.org, 651-789-5504.

OTHER MEMBER ONLY PROGRAMS AND PUBLICATIONS

Do PIM/PIA members receive discounts on products or services? Buying Power Programs (Adobe, FedEx, Staples, etc.) are listed on the PIM and PIA websites: www.pimn.org, www.printing.org.

How does PIM communicate industry news to members? Graphic News and Graphic News Update (bi-monthly newsletters to keep members connected) are sent to members. Email communication is also sent to members. Send your news to Lola Faufau, lfaufau@pimn.org, 651.789.5504