PIM Members Recognized in the Top 400 Printers by Printing Impressions Magazine

ROSEVILLE, MN – January 7, 2010 – Several members of the Printing Industry of Minnesota, Inc. (PIM) have been included in the Top 400 Printers featured in the December 2009 edition of Printing Impressions magazine. The Printing Impressions 400 list (www.piworld.com/article/pi400) is compiled by Julie Greenbaum, Associate Editor of Printing Impressions magazine. Various printing companies could not break down their annual sales by the various print market specialties tracked (i.e. RR Donnelley), and were not included in the rankings.

“It has been a challenging year for the printing industry,” said David Radziej, President of PIM. “The printers who are succeeding are focusing on customer relationships, new technologies and process improvement. I am very proud to be associated with some of the best printing companies throughout the United States and Canada. The Top 400 list is the most comprehensive list of its kind in the industry, and PIM members stand out in the rankings.”
